New York City – The second-annual Global Spin Awards, held this past Monday night at Manhattan's New York Times Center, honored hip-hop DJs of national, regional and legendary renown. The event drew plenty of surprise celebrity guests, including Kendrick Lamar, Sean Paul, Swizz Beats, A-Trak, DJ Drama, Kid Capri, Tristan Wilds from The Wire and more.

The night kicked off with a standout performance from Fool's Gold Records head honcho and turntablist extraordinaire A-Trak. Notable awards included the Lifetime Achievement Award for DJ/rapper Kid Capri, with the Legendary DJ Award going to DJ Marley Marl, who is considered one of the most influential producers in the history of hip-hop. The DJ of the Year Award went to DJ Envy, a prominent NY mixtape DJ and prolific producer.
